KILLED FIRST

Rear Admiral Voelkersam Fell Early in the Fight.

ROJESTVENSKY WILL DIE

AFTERMATH OF GREAT SEA FIGHT.

Tokio, June 1.-11 p. m.-Rear Admiral Voelkersam, who was comman der of the battleship squadron of the Russian fleet, it was announced today, was killed the first day of the battle,

May 27, in the conning tower of his flagship, the battleship Ostabya, one of the vessels sunk by the Japanese. Rear Admiral Voelkersam was appointed commander of the battleship squadron of the Russian fleet in July last and left Cronstadt Amerist 25 with ast and left Cronstadt August 25 wil the other vessels commanded by Admiral Rojestvensky. It was Voelker-sam's squadron, according to report, which fired on the British trawlers in in addition to the main fighting force, most of the second class Russian cruisers and subsidiary vessels were destroyed, so that the whole Russian fleet was practically annihilated. The Russian cruisers Aurora and Almaz probably sunk. Attention is called to the fact that the Japanese torpedo operations were highly successful and that a majority of the large Russian vessels were sunk as a result of them. During the progress of the battle there was considerable mist and for which was considerable mist and fog which prevented the comprehensive report."
